PEDIATRIC DECOMPENSATION: RECOGNITION AND STABILIZATION PRESENTED BY
BERNADETTE FETTEROLF, PhD, RN, CNS

- Discuss physiological and anatomical variances that predispose infants and children to respiratory and circulatory decompensation
- Recognize signs of decompensation in the infant and child
- Identify approaches to stabilization of the infant and child in decompensation

January 12th, 2012 9 to 11am
At Wesley Medical Center
Intrust Learning Center - Room “F”
2.0 Contact hours for RN/LPN/LMHT
2.4 Contact hours for RT
$20.00 registration
Come early to register or call Wesley Medical Center Staff Development office at 962-3325 for registration details.